Administration (SIRVA)

Jimmy A. Zgheib, Zgheib Sayad, P.C., White Plains, NY, for petitioner.

Zoe Wade, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On February 11, 2019, Vera Leftridge filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered on December 2, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 10, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent concludes that “petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA of the right arm and that it meets the requirements of a Table injury claim for SIRVA stemming from the flu vaccination on December 2, 2017.” Id. at 4. Respondent further “did not identify any other causes for petitioner’s injury, and records show that she suffered the sequela of this injury for more than six months.” Id. at 4-5.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
